2025 SWA JURIED MEMBERSHIP & SMALL WORKS EXHIBITION

Juror – Tim Saternow

"I make the city quiet."

Tim Saternow is an American painter whose watercolor paintings explore the lost and forgotten areas on the edges of the urban scene. His work encompasses the old High Line train trestle above the gritty industrial streets of New York City, the empty homesteads of Joshua Tree, California, and the dignified and genial old houses of Provincetown, on Cape Cod. Saternow, trained as a set and lighting designer in theater, and as an art director in film, has always used his theater design sensibilities to make paintings that tell stories of these neighborhoods, and the people who might live there.

He paints large architectural landscape watercolors with a thick use of watercolor paint, playing with the tension between the illusions of depth, carefully drawn linear perspective, and an obvious play on the surface of the paper through watermarks, paint runs, blooms and spatters. Saternow is particularly sensitive to the emotive power of light, especially the distinct light of fall and winter creating deep shadows while playing across the faces of the old brick townhouses in New York and the weathered clapboard of Cape Cod.

"I love the authenticity, immediacy and raw honesty of painting finished watercolor works en plein air. This can be a challenge at times, but the rewards of plein air painting are numerous and immense."

$1,450

Juror Tim Saternow's Comments:

This is a virtuosic and flawless painting of a rich red rose. The depth of color and meticulousness brushwork, the palpable softness of the pedals and leaves, all creates a truly brilliant watercolor painting.

2nd Place

Iok-Hou Pang, SWA

Grand Prairie, Texas

Golden Dusk

16" x 22" $1,200

Juror's Comments:

There is a calmness created by the solidity of the precisely painted woman and dog completely surrounded by the warm soft liquid light of evening. The variety, range and softness of color is expertly handled in the sky and water, creating a moment of silence.

3rd Place

Cindy Baird, SWA

Arlington, Texas

Rise Up

11" x 22 ¼" $1,500

Juror's Comments:

This is a surprising painting that uses watercolor at its best: the bloom softly dissolving into the air contrasting with the harsh hard steel fence and barbed wire. Beautifull painted.

Juror's Award

Juror's Comments:

Elaine Jary, SWA
Bedford, Texas
Great Egret Couple
29" x 21" $1,500 (Sold)

This painting gorgeously captures the scale and grandeur of these expertly rendered egrets, set off against a bold blue background that thrusts them into the foreground. Dazzlingly painted.

Honorable Mention

Juror's Comments:

This is a bold and fascinating experiment into a painting like a highly polarized photo, using just the brightest of lights with minimal color and detail, yet clearly telling a story.

Pam Wilson, SWA
McKinney, Texas
Ready to Order?
18" x 14" $1,000

Honorable Mention

Alonzo Clarke, SWA
Newmarket, New Hampshire
Torrent to Gold
14" x 11" $700

Juror's Comments:

This painting captures the great illustrators of the turn of the century with the strikingly contrasted textures of the houses, trees, rocks and water. Magical and beautifully composed.

1st Place

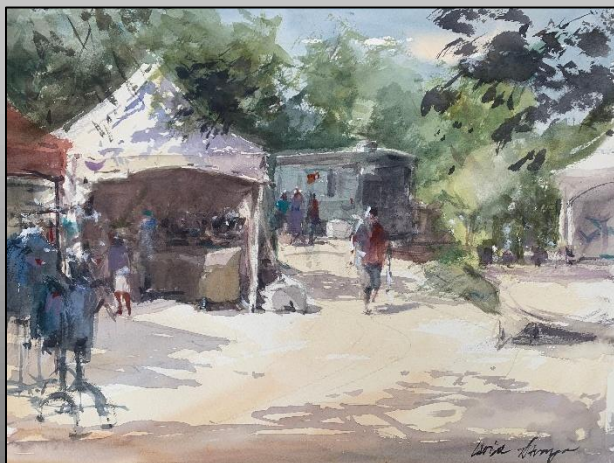

Gaylord O'Con

Dallas, Texas
Tahoka Shadows
18" x 12" $600

Juror's Comments:

I love the lines of the light and dark, and vertical and horizontal, that gives this painting a rhythm that guides you deep into this space. Almost monochromatic, there is a distinct sadness to this abandoned industrial plant yet painted with stately grandeur.

2nd Place

Larisa Anaya

Georgetown, Texas
Art in the Heart
12" x 16" $480

Juror's Comments:

The surety and bravado of the brushwork produces an economy of detail yet shows everything we need to see of this sunny day. Expertly painted with great faculty.

3rd Place

Lisa Tennant

Killeen, Texas
Gung Ho
18" x 24" $1,780

Juror's Comments:

This striking painting goes beyond most photorealistic paintings by using a brilliant composition and point of view that just shows us just a section of this old neon sign yet making us want to see more. Fascinating and expertly painted.

Juror's Award

Rick Anderson
Clinton, Mississippi
Layered Landscape
11" x 15" $1,250

Juror's Comments:

By just suggesting a tree and building this painting beautifully bridges both worlds of abstract and figurative composition, with striking and strong horizontals broken by splashes of paint and the organic shape of the tree. This is not a simple painting and begs to be fully explored.

Honorable Mention

Juror's Comments:

The strong contrast of crisp white buildings against the soft trees and mountains creates an arresting sense of sunlight and depth of landscape. Beautifully and assuredly painted.

Sujit Sudhi
Kenosha, Wisconsin
Sunlit
15" x 11" $650

Honorable Mention

Terri Hennessy
Plano, Texas
Up Over the Ridge
15" x 22" $600

Juror's Comments:

Crisp white birch trees against a forlorn rainy sky make this a mysterious painting beautifully set above a stunning abstraction of roots, earth and rain.

Penny
9" x 10" $950

Juror's Comments:

A gorgeous yet pensive portrait is masterful with its fluidity of line and minimal color. There is a restraint shown in this subject yet an unruliness of technique that perfectly captures this young woman's spirit.

2nd Place

Sujit Sudhi
Kenosha, Wisconsin
Old Pots, New Plants
10½" x 7½" $500

Juror's Comments:

What makes this painting so accomplished is the loose handling of the flowers contrasting to the solid clay pots. It's an education in what watercolor does best: soft edges and hard edges, and gorgeous color. Masterful.

3rd Place

Vicki Rowley, SWA
Arlington, Texas
Abstract Violet
5" x 7" $50

Juror's Comments:

This exquisitely painted abstract is both fluid and calming, using the power of color and the softness of watercolor to create a visceral emotional reaction. Beautiful.

SOCIETY OF WATERCOLOR ARTISTS

The Society of Watercolor Artists was founded in 1981 by twenty-five watercolor artists who wanted to share their enthusiasm, thirst for knowledge, and desire to promote an interest in the medium. The first meetings were held in a bank on University Drive in Fort Worth. The articles of incorporation were sent to the state in March 1983, and 501(c)(3) status was applied for and received on August 16, 1983. Over the years, the society has met in the First Congregational Church on Trail Lake Dr. and in Gabbert's Furniture on Oakmont Blvd before moving to the present location at UNT Health Science Center on Camp Bowie Blvd.

The Society of Watercolor Artists (SWA) is the only art association in Tarrant County dedicated exclusively to water media.

SWA is in its 44th year and continues to draw international attention to its annual exhibitions:

the International Juried Exhibition and the Juried Membership Exhibition.

Signature status is awarded to those artists who are juried into five SWA exhibits while maintaining a current membership

(disqualified pieces do not count.) Monthly meetings are held at the University of North Texas Health Science Center,

Everett Hall and further the education of water media use through live demonstrations.

SWA hosts our annual Juried Membership Exhibition in the fall of each year.
